VERTICAL OFFERING

“The wine shows softly lush tannins and deep, complex flavors of red fruit, berry, licorice, cocoa and mineral that easily stand up to 100% new French oak. Don’t open it until at least 2018, and it should develop for many years afterward.” CELLAR SELECTION

—Virginie Boone, Wine Enthusiast (2009)

“...a glorious bouquet of sweet blueberry liqueur intermixed with cassis, acacia flowers and a touch of oak. Deep, licorice-infused cassis, white chocolate and espresso roast flavors emerge from this complex, full-bodied, opulent, fleshy 2010... can be cellared for 12-15 years.”

—Robert Parker, Jr., Wine Advocate (2010)

“Soft layers of subtle plum and cassis.” CELLAR SELECTION —Virginie Boone, Wine Enthusiast (2011)
